Introduction

Internal Quality Assurance Cell(IQAC) is an integral part of Higher Education Institutions(HEIs). It serves as a quality sustenance measure and integrates with Institutional system to work towards realization of the goals of quality enhancement and sustenance. The prime task of the IQAC is to develop a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic improvement in the overall performance of institution. It serves to channelize all the efforts and measures of the institution towards promoting its academic excellence.

IQAC evolves mechanisms and procedures for efficient and progressive performance of academic procedures including integration of modern methods of teaching, learning and evaluation procedures. It promotes quality research programmes as well as sharing of research findings with network of institutions nationally and internationally. It also ensures timely and efficient performance of administrative and financial tasks.

Vision statement:

- To develop a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic action to improve the academic and administrative performance of the institution.
- To promote measures for institutional functioning towards quality enhancement through internalization of quality culture and institutionalization of best practices.

Core values:

- Development and application of quality benchmarks/parameters for various academic and administrative activities of the institution
- Facilitating the creation of a learner-centric environment conducive to quality education and faculty maturation to adopt the required knowledge and technology for participatory teaching and learning process
- Arrangement for feedback response from students, parents and other stakeholders on quality-related institutional processes
- Dissemination of information on various quality parameters of higher education
- Organization of inter and intra institutional workshops, seminars on quality related themes and promotion of quality circles

- Documentation of the various programmes/activities leading to quality improvement
Acting as a nodal agency of the Institution for coordinating quality-related activities, including adoption and dissemination of best practices
- Development and maintenance of institutional database for the purpose of maintaining /enhancing the institutional quality
- Development of Quality Culture in the institution

Report of the Event

a) Introduction of the Event:

Faculty of Law in association with Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), SGT University organized a Workshop on “Know Your Legal Rights: With Special reference to Constitutional and Criminal Law” by Prof. (Dr.) Sanjay Pandey, Dean of Faculty of Law, on the 29th of July 2022, at 11.00 a.m. The event witnessed an enormous participation from the faculty members from all departments of SGT University.

b) Objective of the Workshop:

The workshop is conducted to know about the Legal Rights – the concept and how it can be exercised in India. The aim of the event is to provide the faculty members a platform to enhance their knowledge related to the topic. The purpose is to give an acquaintance with some of the developments, problems and points of view in enforcing the legal rights with special reference to Constitution of India and criminal law in India. In addition, it is to encourage the faculty members to make a use of the knowledge and enforce their legal rights in India.

c) Brief report-

The Workshop was convened by Ms Rajasi Guharoy, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, SGT University. The expert explained the concept of legal rights. Further, the expert described certain unenumerated legal rights which are provided by Article 14, Article 19 and Article 21 of the Constitution of India. The expert also focused on certain legal rights which are laid down under the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973. The expert also enlightened the faculty members on how to enforce these rights with the help of various judgments of Supreme Court of India and High Courts. It was an enriching experience on the part of faculty members of SGT University.
